

Town of Marion

Community Electricity Aggregation Update

October 5, 2021

Enrollments

January 2016 (Launch)	2,222
August 2021	2,191
Maximum (Apr 2018)	2,372
Minimum (Apr 2021)	2,049

Accounts Billed

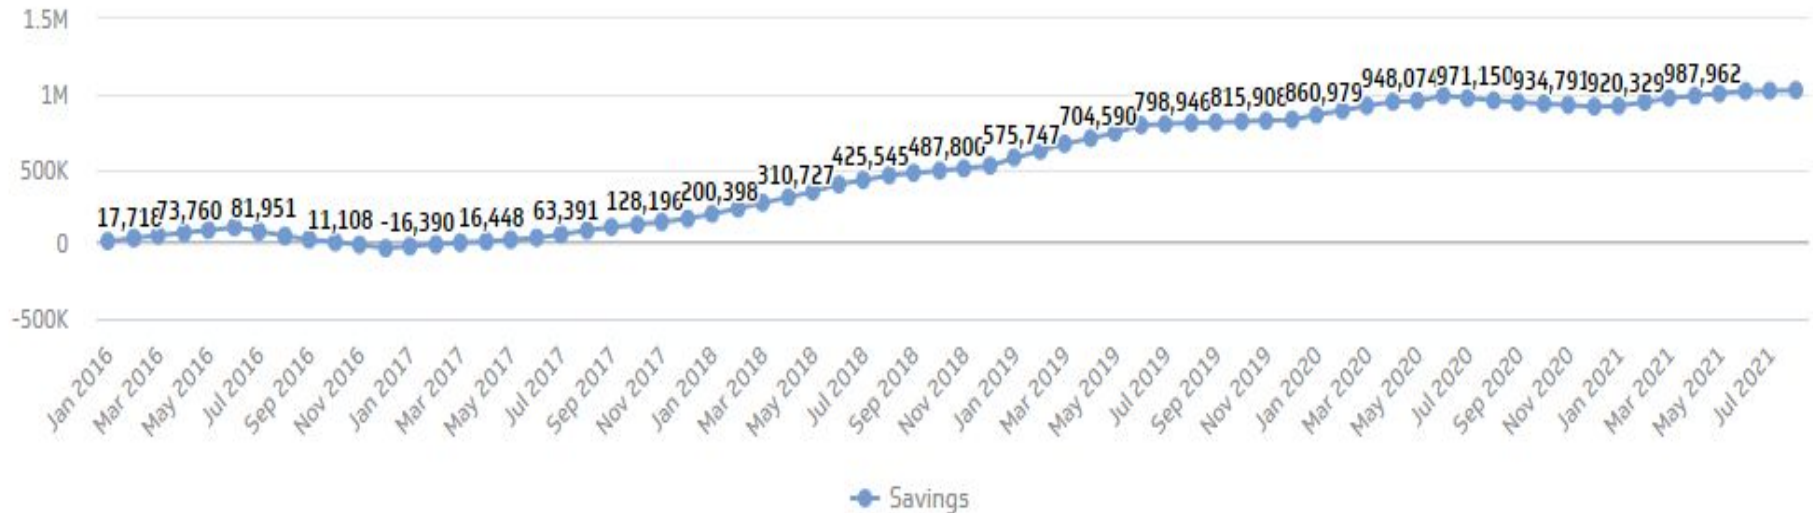

Savings cannot be guaranteed because future Eversource Basic Service Rates are unknown.

Savings (cumulative)

Aug 2021 $1,024,240

Savings (kWh) - cumulative

Savings for all rate classes

Savings cannot be guaranteed because future Eversource Basic Service Rates are unknown.

Rate Comparison Chart

During the duration of the Community Electricity Aggregation (CEA), CEA Rates have compared very well with Eversource Basic Service Rates.

Savings cannot be guaranteed because future Eversource Basic Service Rates are unknown.

Rate Comparison

Proposed National Grid Basic Service Rate
(Residential, Nov 1, 2021 to Apr 30, 2022)

$0.14821 / kWh

Community Electricity Aggregation Rate
(Residential, current to Dec 2023)

Standard $0.10470 / kWh

Green 50% $0.12244 / kWh

Green 100% $0.14019 / kWh

Savings cannot be guaranteed because future Eversource Basic Service Rates are unknown.

CEA Profile

Enrollments for the duration of the CEA have remained stable and within a very tight range indicating continued acceptance of the CEA.

Cumulative savings continue to show a favorable trend, although future savings cannot be guaranteed.

Savings cannot be guaranteed because future Eversource Basic Service Rates are unknown.